OPENING OF REALTY MARKET. Increased Number of Inquiries

Point to Big Business.

Realty agents reported yesterday a remarkable increase in the number of inquiries for property, and the indications are that fall business will open with a rush within the next week. Most of the dealers have returned from their vacations, driven in by the cool weather and the consequent probability of many of their customers re-turning to the cny earder than in ordinary probaming to tree city earlier than in ordinary seesons.

W. J. Holbrook of the Holbrook-Blackwelder Real Estate Trust Company, came home yesterday from Colorado and the Pacine Slope. He says that St. Louis is attracting a great deal of attention in all the Western States, and that the era of prosperity is more in evidence here than in any city he has visited.

"And with our growth and brilliant prospects," Mr. Holbrook remarked, "there is no inflation of prices of reairy. It is the time for investments, and this season will witness many large ones."

The Greer-Anderson Reality Company sold yesterday for the account of Rudolph A. Buermann to William C. Winter, No. 296 Kenneriy avenue, double brick building containing four three-room flats, for $2.500 cash. Mr. Winter bought for an investment and was represented by the Lincoln Trust Company.

Robert Rutledge, Jr., and Miss Helen Leighton Were Wed Last December.

MARRIAGE WAS KEPT

Miss Helen Leighton of No. 5245 McPherson avenue, and Robert Rutledge, Jr., of No. 4414 Morgan street, were married in St. Charles on December 26 last, but the fact did not become generally known until yesterday. At the Leighton home it was stated that there was no objection to the marriage, except the extreme youth of the bride and bridegroom.

SECRET EIGHT MONTHS.

At the time the ceremony was performed

At the time the ceremony was performed Mr. Rutledge was still attending the High School being a member of the senior class. The parents of Mrs. Rutledge are in New York, where they are spending the summer. A sister of the bride refused to say whether they had been notified of their daughter's marriage.

The young man had been a visitor at the Leighton home for several years, and in the Christmas holidays when he proposed to Miss Leighton that they be married at once she accepted. To keep the fact from becoming generally known they went to St. Charles, where the ceremony was performed by the Reverend Doctor Davis. On their return to the city they each went to the homes of their parents, and the secret has been closely guarded ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge will make their home at the residence of Mr. Leighton on McPherson avenue. Mr. Rutledge refused to be interviewed last night. Members of his family seemed to be surprised when told of the marriage.

Mrs. Rutledge is the daughter of James F. Leighton, an insurance agent, and Mr. Rutledge's father is vice president of the Rutledge found.

The board made a most searching investigation and many professional dodgers were made to give in their holdings. The report is current that twenty rich citizens of this place have entered into a combine to resist by process of law the payment of the assessments levied by the board. The board was assisted in its work by expert tax ferrets, and the energy with which they went after the dodgers created consternation among the large property owners, many of whom had successfully evaded the tax assessor and collector for years.

nearly two months ago, is in a serious condition.

As a result of the fight, Fox is a defendant on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Scott Brouster, conductor of the car, is the proseculing witness. The case was called in Justice Greenfelder's court in Clayton yesterday, but was continued for ten days at the request of Judge 10cmas B. Harvey, Fox's attorney. Judge Harvey exhibited a letter from Doctor H. H. Shiley stating that Fox was his patient, and that he was in St. Mary's Infirmary.

Fox is secretary of the Fox Bros. Mannfacturing Company, and lives at No. 3652 South Grand avenue. With his father. George C. Fox, Robert B. McConneil and about ten others, he went to the home of a friend on the St. Charles Rock Road one evening about two months ago. On the return the party boarded Brouster's car and got into a fierce encounter with the conjuctor, who is said to have used his collection box.

Warrants charging assault with intent to Warrants charging assault with intent to kill were issued the next day by Justice Campbell against the Foxs, McConnell and the other members of the party, who were known only by fictitions names. In addition, suits for damages were flied against them by the railroad company.

The St. Louis men retaliated by having a warrant issued against Brouster charging him with the same offense. Brouster was released on a $509 bond, but at Judge Harvey's request, the ball was yesterday increased to $1,000. The cases against the other defendants were also continued until September 19.

MEMORIAL SERVICES PLANNED Churches May Observe Anniversary of President's Death. The first anniversary of the death of President McKinley will be next Sunday It is planned to have every church in the United States hold memorial services at the regular morning hour for worship.

Pastors of several local churches have signified their intention of complying with the request. It is expected that others will follow and that the services will be general. Many prominent pastors have not returned from their summer vacations, and in their churches no provision has been made.

The Reverend Doctor J. W. Lee, pastor of St. John's M. E., Church, South, said yesterday afternoon that he considered the idea a good one, and that a part of the service at his church would be in commersoration of the anniversary.

The Reverend Doctor Daniel Dorchester of the Lindell Avenue M. E. Church will not hold a special service, as a very elaborate one was held at the time of the Preeddent's death. At that time it was ordered that a beautifully embossed book of the resolutions adopted be prepared and forwarded to Mrs. McKinley.

Father James T. Coffey said that in addition to the regular services of the Catholic churches of the city there will be exercises of a memorial nature, although no concerted United States hold memorial services at the CONSCIENCE WORRIED Woman Could Not Bear Secret of Man's Death.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Trib-une from New Orleans says: A woman's conscience has compelled her to reveal the mystery in the death of Earl C. Lukens, manager of the New Orleans branch of correspondence school. Lukens, it was believed, was accidentally drowned on the evening of August 31.

On that evening a party boarded the yacht Indian for a soil down the river. On the yacht's return it was given cut that Lukens had accidentally fallen overboard and drowned. His body was recovered two days later.

and drowned. His body was recovered two days later.

Mrs. Kate Jarreau, the young wife of a traveling man, has confessed to Coroner Richard that she pushed Lukens overboard. Mrs. Jarreau said that she had been bantered by Lukens and had warned him that if he kept on she would throw him overboard. He had continued and she had made good her threat.

Mrs. Jarreau went on to say that she had wished to tell the truth about the affair on the night of the drowning, but had been prevented by Hans Reig, a member of the party, who had warned everybody that in justice to her good name they should all stick to the accident theory.

Mrs. Jarreau is held by the police as a witness. After she told her story a search was made for Reig and it was discovered that he had left the city.
